FORTUNA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
July 20, 2020

The July 20, 2020, meeting of the Fortuna Chamber of Commerce was called to order by Vice Chair Bailey Davy via Zoom with 7 persons present.

Becky Giacomini led the group in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Renee Lindsay announced a City Council meeting at 6:00 pm on Zoom. Free Yoga in Rohner Park was being offered every Wednesday evening at 5:30 pm. The City is waiving encroachment fees for businesses to allow for outdoor dining. The Parks department has 10 tables available for any restaurant that would like to use them for seating. On July 29, FBID will be giving out personal protective equipment to local businesses. This equipment was secured by Arcata Economic Development Commission through the Governor's Office of Economic Development. Our next meeting on July 27 will feature guest speaker Nezzie Wade from Affordable Homeless Housing Alternatives.

Guest Speaker: Brienne Mirjah, American Cancer Society

Brienne gave a brief overview of what the American Cancer Society does and upcoming events during Relay Week.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Renee Lindsay
